

Zionism

The records below consist of everything found in Edinburgh which relates to the Edinburgh Jewish community's involvement in the Zionist cause and British political and Christian theological engagement with Zionism.

Repository	Date	Title	Relevance	Scope	Reference
National Archives of Scotland	1917	Miscellaneous correspondence	Zionist policy, Jewish propaganda and a Jewish Regiment	Correspondence between Philip Kerr (11 th Marquess of Lothian), John Buchan, Department of Information, and Mr Jobotinsky	GD40/17/952
National Archives of Scotland	1917-1940	Private and political Papers of Philip Kerr	Land sale in Palestine	Letters from Vera Weizmann, widow of Dr. Chaim Weizmann, and from Boris Guriel, keeper of the Weizmann Archives, regarding Weizmann letters in the Lothian archives, and returning 14 letters and cables	GD40/17/205
National Archives of Scotland	1918	Telegrams received by the London Bureau of the Zionist Organisation	London Bureau of the Zionist Organisation and the pogroms in Poland and Galicia	Copy memorandum on pogroms in Poland; copy telegram from The Jewish Correspondents' Gravenhage, 29 Nov on pogroms in Galicia and Poland and copies (2) telegrams appealing for the Allies to act and for admittance of non-Galician Jews as the official Zionist delegation to Lemberg	GD40/17/1163

Zionism

The records below consist of everything found in Edinburgh which relates to the Edinburgh Jewish community's involvement in the Zionist cause and British political and Christian theological engagement with Zionism.

Repository	Date	Title	Relevance	Scope	Reference
National Archives of Scotland	1919-1922	Papers of the Balfour Family: Correspondence on Zionism	Correspondence on Zionism between AJ Balfour specifically on the question of frontiers and the economic development of Palestine and the tentative success of Zionism	1919 Sept 25 Weizmann to AJB, 1920 Jan 01- 23 Feb AJB to Philip Kerr question on the northern frontier of Palestine with reply, 1920 11 Feb discussion of the forthcoming meeting of the International Executive of the Zionist Organisation, 1920 08 Oct Foreign Office exchange with AJB on the northern frontier of Palestine, 1920 13 Oct AJB to Curzon Copy referring to enclosed letter from Weizmann about the need for water and power	GD433/2/5/27-69
National Archives of Scotland	1919-1928	Miscellaneous letters to A.J. Balfour on Zionism	Early development of Zionism	1919 Letter in name of the Jewish Press news Association of Zurich, 1920 Letter from Paul singer to AJB, 1921 The Zionist Organisation including a copy letter of Jabotinsky to Churchill	GD433/2/5/27-69

Zionism

The records below consist of everything found in Edinburgh which relates to the Edinburgh Jewish community's involvement in the Zionist cause and British political and Christian theological engagement with Zionism.

Repository	Date	Title	Relevance	Scope	Reference
				following the Jaffa riots, 1921 October letter from Weizmann to AJB, Government House Jerusalem letter from Herbert Samuel to Churchill, 1922 letter from Weizmann to AJB, letter from Jimmy Rothschild to AJB, 1923 Letter from Weizmann to AJB a description about the parliamentary deputation to the Prime Minister about Zionism, letter from W Ormsby Gore to AJB and the question of immigration, letter from Weizmann to AJB entitled 'the situation in Palestine', 1925 Letter from Archbishop Randal, 1928 Letter from Henrietta Szold, Palestine Zionist Executive with a Hebrew booklet by Mordecai Mechaeli - teacher in the

Zionism

The records below consist of everything found in Edinburgh which relates to the Edinburgh Jewish community's involvement in the Zionist cause and British political and Christian theological engagement with Zionism.

Repository	Date	Title	Relevance	Scope	Reference
				Tachkemoni school in Jerusalem, letter from Leonard Stein to AJB about the Zionist demands on the attitude of the Palestine government.
Edinburgh University Archives	1925-1985	Commemoration of the founding of the Hebrew University	Zionism and the Hebrew University Lord Balfour, Viscount Allenby, Sir Herbert Samuel and the future first prime minister of Israel Chaim Weizmann were all present at the opening ceremony on 1 April 1925	Medal commemorating the opening of the Hebrew University of Jerusalem, 1925; a medallion commemorating the 50th anniversary, 1975; and, an account of the 60th anniversary celebrations, June 1985, being the programme of convocation (graduation ceremonial) and a translation to English of the introduction to the convocation. There is also a first-day cover (Israeli postal service) commemorating the anniversary.	GB 237 Coll-383

Zionism

The records below consist of everything found in Edinburgh which relates to the Edinburgh Jewish community's involvement in the Zionist cause and British political and Christian theological engagement with Zionism.